) In view of the changed situation in Hyderabad it is)proposed to cancel the Madras Essential Articles (Movement A)Control) Order, 1948. When that is done, it will not be)necessary for merchants, traders and others to obtain permits for taking into the border districts any of the scheduled articles or removing any of them from those districts.

If there is no objection, Chief Secretary may kindly give the above note to the Press Reporters when they see him tomorrow. The publication of the above note will stop the rush of fresh applications for permits
